

Project Title	EducationUSA Vilnius Intern
Project Summary	Develop and lead meaningful cohort advising program for a small group of motivated 11th graders and potential applicants to U.S. colleges and universities. The program should help students develop their English writing and comprehension skills, college essay and college application skills.
Country	Lithuania

Project Description

During the internship period you will have a possibility to develop and lead a meaningful cohort advising program for a small group of motivated Lithuanian high school students.

The program may include webinars, consultations and individual assignments reviews.

During the internship you will gain experience in peer to peer advising, develop cross-cultural communication, presentation, editing and assessment as well as leadership skills. Working alongside with EducationUSA Vilnius advisers you will get an opportunity to be a mentor for a small group of Lithuanian high school students, help them practice English speaking and writing skills and inspire them to choose U.S. colleges as their higher education destinations.

You will be expected to:

- Facilitate a monthly book/article or video discussion;
- Conduct a monthly session on college culture or topic related to studying in the U.S.
- Review 1 monthly individual assignment, such as personal essay or academic writing task.
